

Prison and Probation Service of Finland

– strategic goals 2024–2027

We support our clients to improve their abilities to live without crime.

We do high-quality work with our clients and prevent crime in prison together with our cooperation partners.

Our work is founded on justness, equality, safety and security.

We are a desirable and stable workplace where well-being at work and occupational safety are given priority.

Future needs guide the development of our work, competence and structures.

The Prison and Probation Service is a respected and influential part of the public service system – working safely together towards a life without crime
